Michael Y Hamilton Completes Four Days of Professional Education and Training at the Centaurus Financial National Conference

Fort Myers, FL – July 21 2016 Michael Y Hamilton attended the Centaurus Financial® National Conference in Huntington Beach, California from June 26th-30th, 2016. The conference featured a premier forum for financial advisors to increase their industry knowledge and the opportunity to network with over 300 financial professionals from across the country over a four-day curriculum.

The 2016 Centaurus Financial National Conference provided advisors with a comprehensive overview of the current political, regulatory and economic environment as well as timely financial services training and education related to retirement income planning, estate planning, advisory services, risk management and alternative investment solutions. Also featured at the conference were keynote presentations from Amy Florian – Thanatologist, CEO, Author, Speaker, Coach and Teacher; Peter Lefkin – Senior Vice President, Government and External Affairs, Allianz of America Corporation; and Robert O’Neill – SEAL Team Six Leader, Naval Special Warfare Development Group.

“The Centaurus National conference provides an excellent forum for financial advisors of all experience levels and expertise to come together and exchange valuable ideas with one another and to learn from other industry professionals.” said John Adams, EVP, Chief Operating Officer for Centaurus Financial, Inc. “It is essential that financial advisors have the opportunity to increase their knowledge base on an ongoing basis through a robust educational and training platform in order to help them better serve their valued clients.”
